being told of the death of a disciple from snakebite, the Buddha says that this would not have happened had the disciple irradiated the world of snakes with loving mind; and here we have the confirmation of the very idea we have just discussed: love creates a defense, paralyzes hostile beings, disarms them and makes them retreat, because it arouses in them the feeling that their limited selves are facing the limitless.

Steve Bannon says Trump will be impeached in six weeks because Nancy Pelosi is 'very focused' and warns Hillary Clinton and Mike Bloomberg will replace other weak Democratic challengers
Steve Bannon says President Donald Trump will be impeached in six weeks.
The president's former chief strategist and ex-Breitbart News chairman issued a direct warning to the Trump administration Saturday, warning the White House wasn't taking the threat of impeachment seriously enough. Bannon says House Speaker 'Nancy Pelosi is very focused,' about getting the process of impeachment started, and that even if Trump manages to avoid being removed from office, there are even greater threats waiting as the 2020 presidential election approaches.

Trump and Vice President Mike Pence could find themselves facing off Mike Bloomberg and Hillary Clinton, the 65-year-old Bannon told the New York Post.
The current slate of Democratic candidates vying for the party's nomination in the upcoming presidential race doesn't have a chance against the Republican incumbent.
'This is serious. As sure as the turning of the earth, he (President Donald Trump, pictured) is going to be impeached,' says Bannon, urging the administration to take the threat more seriously

'Nobody on that stage can beat Trump at least as far as right now. The only person that could beat Trump that is currently in the field is Trump,' said Bannon, still bullish about his former boss's chances of winning re-election. Bannon, however, urges caution.
He see former Democratic front-runner Joe Biden imploding and Elizabeth Warren, who currently leads, to suffer a backlash from centrists, that will end up killing both their campaigns by the end of the year.

Turkey (Turkish: Türkiye ['tyrcije]), officially the Republic of Turkey (Turkish: Türkiye Cumhuriyeti ['tyrcije dʒum'hu:rijeti] (About this soundlisten)), is a transcontinental country located mainly on the Anatolian peninsula in Western Asia, with a small portion on the Balkan peninsula in Southeast Europe. East Thrace, the part of Turkey in Europe, is separated from Anatolia by the Sea of Marmara, the Bosphorous and the Dardanelles (collectively called the Turkish Straits).[7] Turkey is bordered by Greece and Bulgaria to its northwest; Georgia to its northeast; Armenia, the Azerbaijani exclave of Nakhchivan and Iran to the east; and Iraq and Syria to the south. Istanbul is the largest city while Ankara is the capital. Approximately 70 to 80 per cent of the country's citizens identify as Turkish.[8][9] Kurds are the largest minority; the size of the Kurdish population is a subject of dispute with estimates placing the figure at anywhere from 12 to 25 percent of the population.

Turkey is a charter member of the UN, an early member of NATO, the IMF and the World Bank, and a founding member of the OECD, OSCE, BSEC, OIC and G-20. After becoming one of the first members of the Council of Europe in 1949, Turkey became an associate member of the EEC in 1963, joined the EU Customs Union in 1995 and started accession negotiations with the European Union in 2005 which have been effectively stopped by the EU in 2017 due to "Turkey's path toward autocratic rule". [26] Turkey's economy and diplomatic initiatives led to its recognition as a regional power while its location has given it geopolitical and strategic importance throughout history. [27][28] Turkey is a secular, unitary, formerly parliamentary republic which adopted a presidential system with a referendum in 2017; the new system came into effect with the presidential election in 2018. Turkey's current administration headed by president Recep Tayyip Erdoğan of the AKP has enacted measures to increase the influence of Islam, and undermine Kemalist policies and freedom of the press. That's just something I did this morning out of frustration at seen such disingenuous and malicious bullshit. The same method could be applied to any mockingbird article. I'm not sure how you would see these being collected/distributed? Do you have ideas or just asking in general?
