not saying anyone not to fake the card - enough people will do it anyway to warrant the next step anyway just a heads up that faking of covid cards will be used as a justification for RFID sort of smart mark baalshit digital vaccine certificate that will either be the thing that entitles you to banking system/shopping or it will have bank account tied to it in a post global reset cashless society and having such certificate will be the only way to buy/sell so having a paper certificate won't buy you much time it might be too late to prepare it but have some innawoods/rural retreat ready and accessible or if that's not an option then repent and get beheaded for Jesus when Christians start getting taken away to friendly, inclusive reindoctrination/quarantine centers (not concentration camps at all nuh-uh) that will start forcefully reincarnating people that refuse to go along with NWO

The greatest reason for the German Reich's failure in WW2 was the occult garbage and Nordic LARPing of Himmler and the upper-portion of the SS.

Like it or not, National Socialism was Christian from its outset.

>inb4 source

Mein Kampf and endless speeches, as well as records of churches in the Reich support the fact that Christianity was promoted.

Had Hitler stuck to his guns, rather than letting Himmler waste time with Atlantis and meth, the war would have ended differently. Worse yet, the actions of the more sadist and esoteric officers allowed the (((modern world))) to levy criticisms on the NSDAP that are exaggerated or simply limited to lunatics in the ranks, who everyone else hated.

Now the question, what caused Himmler to fall for the pagan meme?

Each time one of their false gods constructed through national bullshit fails it makes them positively sick.

These literal socio-political deceptions so many people can't afford to survive without.

And every time they are disproven as nonsense the people get more positively sick. The masses that need to be possessed in order for their systems to function that revolt and balk anytime one of their precious deceptions are threatened.

And as increasingly important alters fail, the astounded masses will be positively sickened at the prospect because their minds were created by and perpetuating a false reality. And as each pillar of false alters is demolished their strength of the foundations of their false reality weakens, as the more important false gods they achieved fail. In the astonishment of such vast fictional pillars of false reality failing, they become more positively sick.

And all the deception, make believe and folly research and development will only get the sickness to sleep deeper into the depths of their corrupt cultures and bodies.

I see it over and over again in places that touch on conspiratorial topics: people who talk like they're prophets or sages or whatnot and end up reaching no one.

Not everything can be said in simple terms, yes, but consider this, even if you hold the pearl of highest knowledge what's the point of speaking about it if you do in a way that isn't understandable?

I had to read it several times and I'm still not sure what the 'sick' is - is it 'angry; disgusted' or 'ill; diseased' in the context of OP.

Red-Haired Giants of Nevada

- "Growing up in Nevada I had heard stories of the tribes from the Paiute Indians that lived in the area. They told of red-haired men and women of giant stature as tall as 12 feet who originally lived in the area when the Paiutes first arrived. Evidently these human giants lived to eat the Indians as they had problems making friends. The Indian tribes of the area finally joined and ambushed the giants killing most of them on the spot. The remaining giants took refuge in a cave. The Indians demanded they come out and fight but the giants refused. So, the Indians piled brush into the cave and set a fire. Any giants that did not die were shot with arrows, the remaining giants were asphyxiated."
- In the 1880s this cave was known as Horse Shoe Cave but is now called Lovelock Cave. Lovelock cave is located around 20 miles South of Lovelock Nevada.
- In 1932 local game harvesters started working in this same cave. After digging out four feet of game they found many broken arrows that the Indians had fired into the cave as well as other interesting artifacts, and yes, they found red-haired giants. Even in the physician's mouthful position the skeletons ranged in height from 8 feet 10 inches to just under 12 feet 10 inches. I did an internet search on this subject and found that the reported heights are very different from what I am stating here. (Internet says 6.5 feet 12.5 inches to 8 feet 12 inches)
- I will leave it up to you to decide on the heights based on the photos of one of the cave giant's jaw bone and dental cast of a regular man's teeth. Most of the artifacts have been lost over time due to lack of interest from science. Go figure. However some of the artifacts are in the Humboldt Museum at Winnemucca Nevada and in the Nevada State Historical Society's Museum at Reno.
- Bottom left is a jaw found at Lovelock Cave, middle is a jaw found in the cave, and right is a petrie found in the cave which would have been used by the giants to perform crushing and grinding on substances.

Late reply but whatever, someone might read it and get the wrong idea too. It's not even about the Scots (from Scotia, egyptian princess, also consider Scottish Rite of Freemasonry) or the Irish (Tuatha de Danan, tribe of Dan?) as much as it is about the lineage that's characterized by red and blonde hair. Not every redhead is a part of this but when you read that Mohammad had red hair as did Barbarossa (literally Redbeard) gears should start turning in your head. If I remember correctly king David was described as a ginger too but I'm not sure how to process that information. Anyway, as it turns out, in most myths or accounts that tell about giants they have blonde or red hair (and are often said to come from somewhere underground, Hitler was very interested in that underground - Agartha). An easy example would be those Eastern Island heads and actually are full sculptures of giants with what looks like red hats but was intended to be the hair.

what are the possible governmental solutions to the infestation of the occult in nearly every State on Earth?

I am not suggesting that we can defeat a demonic enemy in our own power, or that we will even get the chance to do so, but in an ideal scenario, how would we do it?

I've seen people on this board critiquing Monarchy as having occult alliances/roots, but I am presently unaware of them.

>Please enlighten me if you know.

Alternatively, I can't see Republics as they stand faring much better; the Anti-Monarchist Party in the early United States was crushed by both sides early on and the people have been oppressed more and more ever since.

It's obvious that Man's government will always be imperfect, but does anyone have any clue on how we could improve, even if only in theory.

>Example

My understanding and experience lead me to view the HRE as the high point of human civilization and interaction: Federal, de-centralized, Christian, (somewhat) elective, and with Free Cities to boot.

Trump tried to buck the system and they implemented a third party pandemic to exert control. with the mail in ballots. because of this that is an example of how the deception supersedes politics. making an election stipulation based on a narrative on a planned pandemic response. They also localized and had mailmen flinging ballots into trashcans and things of that nature. of course the media and censorship helped. The president can not go on twitter. facebook blocked. Why? No one seems to notice. They completely silenced his voice in the public conversation.
